

Microsoft BI/ DW Specialist

Duties:

- Design logical and physical databases with data modeling tools
- Write SSIS packages, Reporting Services Reports and/or Analysis Services cubes
- Write scripts and processes for development
- Review database design changes with the team to determine the impact to the physical database and other systems
- Recommend technical changes to support evolving business and IT processes
- Support production issues for cubes, DW Reporting, and ETL jobs
- Manage and perform maintenance, backups and security for the development databases
- Troubleshoot database issues, configure and maintain SQL Server and database settings
- Perform data migrations; Set up automated processes

Required Skills and/or Product Knowledge:

- 5 + years of Database Development
- Proficiency in Microsoft SQL Server 2000/2005/2008 in the following areas: database design; SQL Server architecture; T-SQL programming; performance tuning; stored procedures, function and trigger design and coding; index implementation and maintenance
- 3-5 + years' experience on SQL Server Reporting Service and Integration Service 2005/2008.
- 3-5 + years' experience designing, developing, testing, and supporting of ETL, cube, and reports.
- Advanced knowledge of OLAP technologies, dimensional modeling, and reporting.
- Experience with cubes and complex SQL queries. Desired: MDX, MOSS , XML, XSLT, JavaScript, , ERP or CRM.
- Understanding of BI application design
- The ability to extrapolate database schema to meet the business needs of the application
- Excellent communication skills and hands-on experience working on component based applications in a distributed environment.
- Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science, Computer Engineering, MIS or related field

Preferred Requirements:

- Microsoft certification
- Functional Microsoft technology knowledge of the following
 - SQL Server Analysis Services 2000/2005/2008
 - SharePoint 2007/2010
 - PerformancePoint Services or PerformancePoint Server 2007. PowerPivot